One: Come, we gather to be with God this morning.

All: Even when we might be home reading the paper...

Even when we might be taking a scenic drive...

Even when our work beckons us...

Even when our bodies ache with pain...

We come to meet you today, God.

One: Come, as we make God the focus of our Sabbath.

Come, as Jesus' lessons bring us our guidance.

Come, as we open our hearts to the Scriptures.

Come, as we pray, praise, repent, and forgive.

And now greet your neighbor as we pass the peace of God.

My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going.
I do not see the road ahead of me.
I cannot know for certain where it will end.
Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think that I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so.
But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you.
And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road, though I may know nothing about it.
Therefore, I will trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death.
I will not fear, for you are ever with me,
and you will never leave me to face my perils alone. Amen!

Offering Our Lives and Resources

Please sign the Hospitality Booklet at the end of each pew and return it again, noticing names and faces of those with whom you are worshiping. After the service be sure to take a moment to greet those worshiping with you, especially those who may be new among us. Also, if you have a joy or concern for which you would like us to pray, you are invited to fill out a prayer card found in the pew racks, and drop it off in the prayer box in the Narthex as you leave. People from the Prayer and Praise ministry team will keep you in prayer.

Thanksgiving Chorus and Lord's Prayer

Led by our Children's Classes

Alle, Alle, Allelujah

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
