Amos 8:1

Hi,

I'm writing this from Hilton Head, South Carolina! My husband and I have a house down here where we hope to spend more time in the warm weather. The main reason we came down this time was to help our daughter and her husband move into their new house in Florida. It's only two hours away from our house here and an easy drive for us. I have aches and pains everywhere and I didn't even help with the heavy items! When we start going on our Primetime trips I will show all of you her new beautiful home and her cute little baby bump. Yes, I am going to be a grandma in September! Yay!!!

I have been doing lots of walking and hiking these last three months. The Cleveland Metroparks have become very dear to me. As you can see from the picture, I am at the Henry Church Rock, better known to us locals as "Squaw Rock." I remember taking our kids there when they were young, as well as anyone visiting from out of town. It is so beautiful. Check out the sign they have at the beginning of the hike. (Pictures on the back)

I don't know about you but I think I have forgotten how to dress up. I may not be able to walk in high heels either! But at least most of us have been able to get our hair cut and colored (like me!). I didn't know my natural hair color was so dark! I like being a blonde again!

Being down South is quite the eye opener - not many people wear their masks and restaurants and stores are very crowded. It's very strange to be around so many people again.

No Primetime events for July. Hopefully we will have something in August. We'll send out a separate newsletter next month with updates.

I will keep all of you in my prayers. Can't wait to see you again.

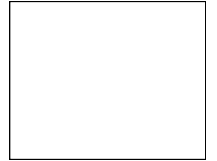

Miss you all,

Dolly Herschel
