"A Mission in our Midst"

August 2020

Newsletter

This is what the Lord God showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit.

Amos 8:1

Hey there everyone!

Hope all of you are enjoying this warm weather.

The church is unsure of when we will open. That said, Primetime is going to hold off on any August activities because of the increase of COVID cases - just to play it safe. I really missed our annual picnic and bingo event. It is one of my favorite Primetime events! (See some of last year's pictures below).

My husband and I have eaten out a few places that have outdoor dining and it felt really good! I'm also really excited about being able to play tennis again. Hopefully these are baby steps to getting back to some kind of "normal."

If you have any prayer requests please contact Kiersti Critchfield at 440.247.6490 x103 and leave a message. Or you can email her at kcritchfield@fedchurch.org.

Also, Peggie Jo Shinagawa is going to offer a virtual Zoom Bible study class that will cover:

- How the Bible came to be
- What the Old and New Testament are about
- How to study the Bible and consider its place in our lives

If you are interested, you can check it out on our church website at fedchurch.org/events/studies. You can also contact Peggie Jo if you have questions at pjshinagawa@windstream.net or 440.543.5974.

Sending you all happy thoughts and missing you so much.

Love,
Dolly Herschel
