Our Love Can Mend a Broken World (Tom Trenney)

Federated Choir;

Tom Trenney, conductor; Marcia Snavelly, piano

* Call to Worship (responsive)

Harriett Rogers

One: The world cries to us in its distress. How shall we answer?

All: We cannot pass by as though nothing is wrong.

One: How shall we answer?

All: We cannot become so focused on ourselves that others mean nothing to us.

One: How shall we answer?

All: We shall be the neighbor in service, reconciliation, and compassion wherever we can. In Jesus' Holy Name.

* Passing of Christ's Peace

(K-6th grade children dismissed to Sunday School in Room 220)

* Hymn

Jesus Loves Me!

No. 113

Opening Prayer (unison)

Harriett Rogers

Loving God, you came to give honor to the least,
those forgotten, overlooked and misjudged.

You came to give first place to the last,
those left behind, misunderstood and undervalued.

You came to give a warm welcome to the lost,
those who are orphaned, abandoned and destitute.

Help us to be your ears to listen to their cries.

Help us to be your voice speaking love and acceptance.

Help us to be your feet walking beside those in need.

And help us to be your hands to clothe, feed and shelter them. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Tom Trenney shares his passion as pastoral musician, composer, and teacher in worship with his home congregation, in the college classroom, and in performances, hymn festivals, choral and organ workshops and master classes all around the country. Tom is blessed to be in his thirteenth season as Minister of Music to First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska, where he shepherds two adult choirs, accompanies the congregation on the Lied organ, preaches sermons, and serves as Artistic Director of the Abendmusik Concert Series. Since 2017, First-Plymouth's choirs have been honored to perform at the Nebraska Music Educators Association Convention as well as for state, regional, and national conventions of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA). Since Fall 2019, Tom has been Assistant Professor of Music and Conductor of Choirs at Nebraska Wesleyan University, following interim choral positions at Doane University and Wartburg College. In 2021, Tom was awarded Second Place for the American Prize in Choral Conducting.

As an organist, Tom has had the opportunity to travel across the country performing concerts, silent films, and hymn festivals. Tom was the first organist to win both First Prize and Audience Prize in the American Guild of Organists' (AGO) National Competition in Organ Improvisation, and, for ten years, he was represented by Karen McFarlane Artists Concert Management. He has been featured at conventions of the AGO and Organ Historical Society as well as for regional and national gatherings of worship leaders and musicians from many denominations.

Tom's choral compositions have been published by Augsburg Fortress, Beckenhorst Press, Choristers Guild, E.C. Schirmer/Galaxy, Morningstar, MusicSpoke, Pavane, and G. Schirmer. His music has been sung in churches and colleges around the country. A graduate of the Cleveland Institute of Music and the Eastman School of Music, Tom is grateful for the inspiration of his teachers and mentors – especially Anton Armstrong, David Davidson, Craig Hella Johnson, (Mister) Fred Rogers, William Weinert, Anne Wilson and Todd Wilson.

Tom was born in Painesville, Ohio, but now lives in Lincoln, Nebraska, with his husband Brent and their two children, Jaymes (7) and Octavia (6). He is grateful for the good people from Northeast Ohio and the Cleveland AGO who have supported him and his family for many years.
