* Call to Worship (responsive) Georgia LeFeber

One: Christ sets before us this day the challenge to seek peace and to pursue it.

All: We accept the challenge of peace, so enable us to pursue it.

One: Christ sets before us this day the call to be peacemakers,

All: to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ to a suffering world.

One: We gather to embody God's love and desire for peace for all people,

All: to hear and give voice to creation's cry for justice and peace.

One: We gather to name and confront the influence of evil within and among us,

All: to repent of our silence and complicity with the powers of chaos and death.

One: We gather to join with the oppressed and troubled people of the world in the struggle for liberation and peace,

All: to work for justice, healing, and wholeness of life.

One: We gather to embrace the unity of God's people and Christ's church,

All: to make peace a reality.

O God, Creator of the universe, who extends your concern over every creature
and guides the events of history to goals of salvation, we acknowledge your love when you break the resistance of humankind and, in a world torn by strife and discord, you make us ready for reconciliation.
Renew for us the wonders of your mercy;
send forth your Spirit that she may work in the intimacy of our hearts, that enemies may begin to dialogue, that adversaries may shake hands and peoples may encounter one another in harmony.
May all commit themselves to the sincere search for true peace which will extinguish all arguments, for charity which overcomes hatred, for pardon which disarms revenge.
In Christ we pray. Amen

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
