is a new creature: old things are

2 Corinthians 5:17 (KJV)

From the Desk of Rev. Hamilton Throckmorton...

Dear Friends,

As we move into March, we move further into the season of Lent. As we travel this Lenten journey, we wend our way into the heart of Christian faith. The story of both the Hebrew Bible and the Christian New Testament is of a piece. In the Hebrew scriptures, the heart of the story is that an Israelite people who have been enslaved in Egypt are led by God to a promised land they could never have imagined or created on their own. And then, centuries later, after the people have been carried off into exile in Babylon, they somehow, against all odds and after many years, are led back to their land. In both the Exodus and the Exile, God has offered a present and a future where none seemed possible.

The New Testament story of Jesus' death and resurrection extends this awesome sense of God's saving presence even further. Now, the power of the Roman Empire is shown to be penultimate. Now, the confining energy of smaller-minded, destructive religious contemporaries is broken down. Now, even death is revealed for the impostor it is. As an Easter hymn puts it, "'Tis the spring of souls today; Christ hath burst his prison, and from three days' sleep in death as a sun has risen" ("Come, Ye Faithful. Raise the Strain," v. 2).

Indeed, the hymns we sing at Easter express the magnificence of the day beautifully: "Christ the Lord is risen today, Alleluia!" "I know that my Redeemer lives." "Thine is the glory." "The strife is o'er, the battle done." "He lives." "Alleluia! Sing to Jesus." "Crown him with many crowns." This is our exultant experience of God's decisive resurrecting act.

So while we can never talk with scientific precision about what exactly happens on that first Easter day, we can nonetheless talk with utter confidence about the magnificence of the God who made that day, as well as all the succeeding resurrecting days, possible. And that's because our experience is that no death is too final, no grave too confining, no failure too total, no ending too complete that God can't bring a way out of no way.

May we journey together through this Lenten season and join together when Easter arrives to celebrate the richness and wonder of the God who is our all-in-all.

Yours in Christ,

Hamilton

Easter Lilies on Sale

This year our Spiritual Formation Commission is raising funds for the April RePlay for Kids event through the sale of Easter lilies. As in years past, these holiday flowers will decorate our Chancel during Easter Sunday. The lilies may be purchased in your name, or In Honor Of, or In Memory Of a loved one or friend. The cost is $16 per plant. A listing of those named will appear in our Easter Sunday bulletin and the May Spire newsletter.

The mission of RePlay for Kids is to increase the availability of toys and assistive devices for children with disabilities. The nonprofit pursues this mission by repairing existing devices, adapting mainstream toys, designing new devices, and educating families and clinicians.

Come join us (ages 12 & up, minors with parent) for a hands-on service opportunity on Saturday, April 20th from 10am-12pm, in Fellowship Hall to “play” with toys, adapting them for kiddos with disabilities. You can contact Kristin at klefeber@fedchurch.org for more information about the event.

After the Easter Sunday worship service, you may take a lily if you purchased one. All others will be donated to local retirement communities and assisted living facilities.

Fill out this form (please print) and mail it to the church to arrive by Tuesday April 4th. If writing a check, note “Easter Lily” in the memo line. This form is also available at fedchurch.org/giving. If giving online, you can add your loved one’s name in the memo line. Thank you!

Generosity Corner

Dear Federated Church,

We cannot thank you enough. Your amazing generosity will help transform lives for some of Cleveland's most vulnerable children, families and veterans.

We look forward to partnering with you throughout the year. If you are interested in volunteering, we have opportunities available in the warehouse and on decos (when we go into client's homes to transform them). These are listed on our website and can be accessed by clicking on the VOLUNTEER button.

We accept donations of new and gently used furniture and household items at our warehouse in Solon. Our drop off hours are from 9:00-3:30 Monday-Friday, by appointment. We will pick up furniture in the community by simply scheduling through our website, www.humbledesign.org/give-furniture. There is a fee for pick ups and it helps cover the cost of our movers and the gas.

As a special thank you to Federated members, we will be offering free furniture pick up on March 25th. We will still ask you to go through the normal process for scheduling pick ups on our website. This way we can confirm that we are able to use the furniture for our clients. In the description section - please indicate that you are a member of Federated Church.

Our website is www.humbledesign.org. The warehouse phone number is 440-318-1039. Follow us on Facebook (humbledesigncleveland) and Instagram @humbledesigncleveland

IFTAR (Dinner)

March 23 at 6:40pm

FREE event but please register at fedchurch.org/events

Come enjoy a wonderful dinner here at Federated Church in Fellowship Hall. We welcome back our friends from the Northern Ohio Intercultural Association, who have generously offered to prepare and serve an Iftar.

Iftar is the evening meal taken by Muslims at sundown to break the daily fast during Ramadan. Ramadan is observed worldwide as a month of fasting, prayer, reflection, and community.

Last April, NOICA hosted an Iftar at Federated Church. Friendships were forged, a delicious meal was shared and a wonderful evening was enjoyed by all. We are thrilled NOICA will return this Ramadan! Join us!

Besides the meal, we will also have an opportunity to learn more about the Muslim faith and traditions. This is a family-friendly event. Children of all ages are welcome! Come, meet new friends.

SJAM MOVIE NIGHT

"Social Justice in Health Care"

presented by Bill Shaul, MD. MPH

Monday, March 18, at 7:00 pm

in Fellowship Hall, Federated Church, 76 Bell St., Chagrin Falls, OH

Dorothy Roberts:

The problem with race-based medicine | TED Talk

Social justice advocate and law scholar Dorothy Roberts has a precise and powerful message: Race-based medicine is bad medicine. Even today, many doctors still use race as a medical shortcut; they make important decisions about things like pain tolerance based on a patient's skin color instead of medical observation and measurement. In this searing talk, Roberts lays out the lingering traces of race-based medicine -- and invites us to be a part of ending it. "It is more urgent than ever to finally abandon this backward legacy," she says, "and to affirm our common humanity by ending the social inequalities that truly divide us."

Followed by discussion.
