Sixth Sunday after Epiphany

10 AM

Chimes indicate the service is starting, and silence is appreciated to prepare for worship.

Prelude Aria (Paul Manz) Carmen Massaro, organ

Welcome and Announcements Rev. Betsy Wooster

Introit Shout Glory! (Byron Smith) Federated Choir;
Carmen Massaro, piano

* Call to Worship (responsive) Rev. Judy Bagley-Banner

One: Blessed are those who trust God, whose trust is the Lord. .

All: They are like trees planted by water, sending out roots by the stream.

One: They have no fear of summer's heat, nor do they wither in the sun.

All: In the year of drought they are not anxious, for their lives bear the fruit of righteousness.

One: Come to the waters of life all you who trust in the Lord.

All: We have come to worship and to send forth our roots into streams of God's living water!

* Hymn I've Got Peace Like a River No. 530

* Hymn Jesus, the Light of the World [words on screen]

* Prayer of Confession Rev. Bagley-Bonner

One: Abiding God, you come near to us and we give thanks that you do not turn away when our lives are messy, ungracious, and complacent. Help us to confront what needs to be known, addressed and changed within us, our community, and our world.

* Those who are able stand

All: Forgive us and free us from guilt and shame so that we might embrace a life of accountability and transformation for the glory of God and for the hope of humanity. Amen.

* Words of Assurance

Rev. Bagley-Bonner

One: The Holy One has begun a good work in us and will see it through to completion. We have the power to transform, and the grace to enter the newness of life.

All: God is present with us. We receive God's mercy, forgiveness, and grace as the gift that has been given us. Thanks be to God!
