One: O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

All: You have set your glory above the heavens.

One: When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars

One: Yet you have made them a little lower than God and crowned them with glory and honor.

All: O Lord, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

feverish, selfish little clod of ailments and grievances, complaining that the world will not devote itself to making us happy. Indeed, loving God, use the school of life to transform us from that state into the state of glory with which
