 Call to Worship

Pete Bednar

Leader: Vanity of vanities, says the teacher. All is vanity.

People: Our days are fleeting, our plans uncertain, our achievements temporary.

Leader: The sun rises and sets. Generations come and go.

People: Yet the steadfast love of the Lord endures forever.

Leader: Life is a gift to be received, not a puzzle to be solved.

People: We will eat and drink and find joy in the work and relationships God has given us.

Leader: Let us worship God—not because we have all the answers,

People: But because God is present in the mystery.

Unison Prayer of Invocation

Pete Bednar

Gracious God, we come before you as people who do not always understand the meaning of our days, yet who trust that our lives rest securely in your hands. In a world that often feels fleeting and uncertain, help us to receive with gratitude the gifts you place before us: the work of our hands, the love of family and friends, and the simple joys of each day. Give us the wisdom to cherish what is good, the humility to accept what we cannot control, and the faith to trust you amid life's mysteries. As we worship you this day, open our hearts to your presence, that we may find joy, purpose, and peace in you. Amen.
